St Januarius Blood Donor Team

Starting from 19th September this year, the Feast of St Januarius – who is the Patron Saint of Blood Banks - the combined Parishes of Albury/Wodonga can contribute their blood donations to the St Januarius Blood Donor Team – the aim is to reach a combined total of 250 donations in 12 months.

If you are not already a Blood or Plasma Donor, please seriously consider visiting the Blood Donor Centre in David Street Albury, opposite Myers, and checking with them to see if you qualify to become a Donor and ask them to register you in the St Januarius Blood Donor Team. You can also make a group booking with friends.

There are many reasons for Disciples to donate blood and plasma: the main one being "Love one other, as I have loved you. By this love you have for one another, everyone will know that you are my disciples" John 13:34-5

Change of Vigil Mass Time with Daylight Saving

A reminder that as from next weekend, the time for the Saturday evening Vigil Mass moves to 6:00pm due to Daylight Saving. You could say that Mass remains roughly at the same "solar time." Sorry for any inconvenience caused.
